FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sept. 26, 2011

Special voting arrangements in place for evacuees

Elections Manitoba is organizing special mobile advance voting stations at Winnipeg and Gimli hotels for the convenience of Interlake residents who have been evacuated due to flooding.

Evacuees have been advised of dates and locations, and the information is also included below.

Voters must bring one piece of government-issued photo ID, such as a treaty card, or two other documents with their name to vote in advance.

Evacuees may also vote at any advance voting place in Manitoba until Oct. 1. A complete list can be found at the Elections Manitoba web site: www.electionsmanitoba.ca.

Election day voting is also available for evacuees. On election day, ID is required only for those voters who have not been enumerated.

Evacuees or other members of the general public who require further information about advance or election day voting are advised to call Elections Manitoba at (204) 945-3225, toll-free: 1-866-628-6837, between 8:00 am and 8:00 pm Monday to Saturday, noon and 6:00 pm Sunday.
