Indicate which name is to appear on the ballot for candidates endorsed by the party. Pursuant to s.98(4)(b) of The Elections Act (EA) only one of the following names may appear on the ballot:

The Proposed Registered Name, or

The Proposed Registered Abbreviation.

The name selected above will be used on the ballot in elections unless written notice from the leader of the party has been received prior to the close of nominations that the other name is to be used. If the Party does not designate a proposed registered abbreviation, the Party's proposed registered name will be used for the purposes of the ballot paper pursuant to s.98(4)(b) of the EA.

Note: Submission of this application alone does not guarantee the use of the proposed registered name indicated above. The proposed name may be subject to a previous reservation of that name by any other political party.
