ENUMERATION COMPLETE

Eligible voters can still have their names added to the voters list

Door-to-door enumeration for the October 4th provincial general election is complete, but voters who were not home when the enumerator called can still have their names added to the voters list.

The preliminary voters list shows that approximately 712,000 voters throughout the province have been enumerated.

Following enumeration, a revision period is held to add, remove or correct names on the voters list. Any eligible voter who did not receive an enumeration record should find out if his or her name is on the voters list. If not, the voter may apply to have it added during the revision period. This period begins today and runs until September 22.

Voters who have not yet been enumerated can contact their returning office to arrange for an election official to visit them at home. They may also go to the returning office to make any changes or additions. They must bring one piece of government-issued photo identification (such as a driver's licence) or two other documents with their name.

Returning offices are open every day from 8:00 am to 8:00 pm except Sunday, when they are open from noon until 6:00 pm.

To find the address of their returning office, voters can call Elections Manitoba at 945-3225, toll-free at 1-866-628-6837 or visit the Elections Manitoba web site:
