TURNOUT AT ADVANCE VOTING LOCATIONS

Approximately 78,600 Manitobans cast their ballots during the eight days of advance voting for the 2011 provincial election. This compares to 42,775 votes cast over seven days of advance voting in the 2007 election.

Election day is tomorrow, Tuesday, October 4. Voting places will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m., an hour longer than in 2007. With this additional hour of voting, more Manitobans will have an opportunity to vote on their way to work or school.

For more information about voting options and where to vote, eligible voters should check their enumeration record, contact their returning officer, or visit the Elections Manitoba website: www.electionsmanitoba.ca.
