DEADLINE APPROACHING FOR VOTING BY MAIL IN THE FORT WHYTE BYELECTION

Saturday is the last day that Fort Whyte voters can apply to vote by mail in the upcoming byelection. Voters can apply to vote by mail at www.electionsmb.ca or by contacting the Fort Whyte Returning Office:

Fort Whyte Returning Office

1-104 Scurfield Blvd

Winnipeg, MB

Phone: 204-809-1073 | Toll-free: 1-833-755-2431

Email: ROFortWhyte@elections.mb.ca

To ensure that their vote can be counted, voters must return their ballot by election day, Tuesday March 22. Only ballots received by 8:00 pm on election day can be counted. Voters will also have the option to return their mail-in ballot to the returning office. Voters who have been approved to vote by mail cannot vote in person.

Eligible voters in Fort Whyte will also have the option of voting on election day. Voters can find where to vote on the Elections Manitoba website or on their voter information card.

More information about vote by mail can be found on the Elections Manitoba website at <https://www.electionsmanitoba.ca/en/Voting/VoteByMail>.
